DELAWARE VALLEY VETERANS CONSORTIUM

A Community Veterans Engagement Board Serving Greater Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey

OUR MISSION

To unite military and Veteran service organizations and advocates who share common goals, to build programmatic capacity, and increase services to clients under the umbrella of regional collaboration.

ABOUT US

The Delaware Valley Veterans Consortium (DVVC) is a volunteer consortium, focused on collaboration, referrals, and knowledge-sharing.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

DVVC has been nationally recognized by the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) as a Community Veterans Engagement Board (CVEB) for our community-based efforts to improve Veteran outcomes and make our community a Veteran-friendly place to live, work, and raise a family.

DVVC received a 2018 Veteran-Friendly Communities Appreciation Certificate from former VA Deputy Secretary Thomas Bowman!

QUARTERLY MEETINGS

Usually the third Friday of the first month of the quarter (January, April, July, October)

WHAT TO EXPECT

DVVC members meet quarterly either in person or via Zoom for a morning seminar. Each meeting includes:

- Time for networking
- Quick introductions to the group
- Presentation or panel discussion

Don't forget to bring your business cards, brochures, and flyers!

MEETING TOPICS

At each meeting, we discuss a particular Veteran issue. Previous topics have included:

- Employment and Retention
- Student Veteran Services
- Homelessness Prevention
- County Veteran Service Offices

SPECIAL EVENTS & TOWN HALLS

Between quarterly meetings, we hold forums on hot topics impacting the Veteran community.

SHARE YOUR NEWS AND EVENTS

We also provide opportunities for member organizations to submit announcements for the monthly newsletter or social media posts.
